Claims 24-40 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR

1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected invention, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on January 24, 2006.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-18 and 21-23 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 17-40 of U.S. Patent No. 7,028,674. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the identified Claims of the Patent teach the elements of applicant's system in a diagnostic setting that is not included in the applicant's current claims. Claim 9 of this application specifically requires that a flow rate be sensed and, while this particular limitation is not found in the Patent, the taking of temperatures over time would have been an obvious way to sense flow rates. Furthermore, in diagnosing the leakage of the system it would have been inherent to sense flow rates.

Claims 19-20 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 17-40 of U.S. Patent No. 7,028,674 in view of Vaitkus. In particular, the Patented claims apply as noted above and Vaitkus teaches the use of resistive gold film on a resistor and well and placing a thermistor on a resistor in a fluid flow detecting device.

It would have been obvious to modify the teachings of the Claims of 7,028,674 by construct the flow meter as taught by Vaitkus because the materials claimed were obviously conventional in the art of fluid flow meter construction.

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
